

Before Alderman DoByne.

In the case of the Commonwealth vs. Conrad Kolb, a hearing took place yesterday before Alderman DoByne. He was charged with assault and battery on oath of his wife, Laura Kolb. The accused was held for court, but the case was afterward settled.

Railroad Officers Clymer and Baldwin had five men before Alderman DoByne yesterday on the charge of trespassing on cars of the Pennsylvania Railroad company. In default of payment of fines and costs they were sent to jail for twenty days each.
