

West Alexander Fair opened yesterday, sponsored by the West Alexander Agricultural Association, the old-fashioned American fairs. At left, G. H. Lyon, judge from the West Virginia University and Mrs. John McMurray, fair secretary, inspect a wool suit made by a 4-H Club member. The boy on the left is as proud of his wool suit. Owner Tom Savage of the Hiawana 4-H Club is readying his animal as Bobby Anderson act as interested observers.
