

Doctor, Bride Honeymoon at Lake Louise

Dr. and Mrs. Harrison J. Kolb (Charlotte A. Sohn) are spending their honeymoon at Lake Louise. They expect to return here the end of the month to make their permanent residence in Oakland. The couple married last Friday at 11:30 o'clock at the Piedmont Community Church. A wedding breakfast followed at the residence of Dr. and Mrs. Harrison Plath at the Bellevue-States.

Mrs. Kolb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jason Miles Sohn of Philadelphia, Pa., was dressed for her marriage, in a tailored grey wool-crepe gown with matching hat. She wore a corsage of violet-colored orchids.

Mrs. Plath, attendant of the bride, wore a deep purple wool crepe with matching hat and a corsage of orchids. Mr. Henry Hal Irwin was best man.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Kolb of Oakland, is a graduate of the University of California and of the Chicago Medical School. He interned at the San Francisco Hospital and is now practicing medicine in Oakland. His bride studied at the Sorbonne in Paris.
