

ph, with the garet Mary ril 20, 1897,
In said con-

religious life y has been of education ese and for ated in the Parkersburg re she was y beloved by been residouse, Saint l has taught and around st few years ved of the e classroom, around each ter tasks in forming her ithfully and became in-removed to ere she died evening.

r Margaret hock to her vill learn of p regret.

removed to teenth and y will lie in Chapel until ten requiem lebrated for oul at ten Mount Cal-

er of Pitts-

RY
83

MADE TO-RY AT

Charles F.
ld at Fairrning at 11 vill then be r burial.
lay. He was ary Henry 7, 1858 in sided for a ater moved was super-t. eldest of 10 arents, and
P. Henry,

PASSES AWAY

BARNESVILLE RESIDENT STRICKEN WEDNES-DAY MORNING

Alphews O. Hollett, 72, died Wednesday at 3:35 a.m. at his home 128 Fair street, Barnesville.
He had been ill the past month.

Mr. Hollett was born September 11, 1868, in Flushing township, a son of Jonathan and Nancy Clevenger Hollett. He was employed at the Watt Car company 19 years, retiring in 1940. He was a member of the First Methodist church and the Masonic lodge.

Surviving are his wife, Alma B.
Hollett, one son, Arthur R., of Chapel Hill, N/C., and one brother, Milo Hollett of New Philadelphia.

The body will remain at the Campbell funeral home until Thursday, when it will be returned to the late home where services will be held Friday at 1:30 p.m. with further services at 2:30 at the Methodist church at Hendrysburg, with his pastor, Rev. C.
Clare Davis officiating. Burial will be made in the Hendrysburg cemetery.

PETER ROTH RITES SET

REQUIEM MASS TO OCCUR
SATURDAY IN ST. ALPHON-SUS CHURCH

Peter Roth, prominently identified with musical circles in this city for many years and a retired veteran cigar maker at the former Augustus Pollack, Inc., died early Wednesday morning at his home, 2511 Chapline street, following a year's illness. Mr. Roth's eighty-seventh birthday anniversary occurred on Monday of this week.

Deceased was born in Germany June 30, 1854, a son of Peter and Margaret Roth. Coming to this country and directly to Wheeling as a young man of 19 he had since resided here.

Mr. Roth was a well known clarinetist and was associated with local musical organizations for many years. He was one of the oldest members of St. Alphonsus Catholic church and was also a member of the Holy Name society of that parish. Mr. Roth had been

The late J. W. Santee, of near Cameron, who died June 28, was buried Tuesday at Cameron. He was a former state senator and an educator for forty years, a former principal of schools at Hundred and Burton.

MRS. LOUISE F. PAPE DIES AT NEW CASTLE

INTERMENT IN THIS CITY FOR WIDOW OF CHARLES PAPE, SR.

Mrs. Louise Fisher Pape, 88, widow of Charles Pape, sr., and a resident of Wheeling until three years ago, died early Wednesday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Minnie Sager in New Castle, Pa. Her health had been failing for the past two years.

Mrs. Pape was born in Wheeling, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
Henry Fisher, and was educated in the public schools of this city.
For many years she was a resident of Waddels Run road. Mrs.
Pape was a member of St. Mark's Lutheran church, Elm Grove.

Surviving are three children, Mrs. Minnie Sager, of New Castle, Pa., Charles Pape, of West Alexandria, Pa.; Fred Pape, of Baltimore, Md.; two brothers, August Fisher, of Wheeling, Fred Fisher, of Elm Grove; one sister, Mrs.
Tillie Kurtz, of this city, and 11 grandchildren.

The body was brought to Wheeling, Wednesday afternoon and taken to the Bertschy Memorial mortuary pending completion of arrangements for services.

EVERETT HOOPER DIES AT WOODSFIELD

Everett H. Hooper, 38, prominent business man passed away Wednesday morning at 2:00 o'clock in the Roth residence on Paul street Woodsfield following an illness of several weeks. He recently underwent an operation.

Surviving are his wife, one daughter and two sons. There are a number of other relatives and many friends.

Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon in the chapel of the Bauer and Turner funeral home in charge of the Rev. J. V.

the morning was 73 degre degrees at noon and 92 d high.

One year ago today th temperature for Wheeling v degrees with 75 as high fo day. The weather was fair.

Eight Drownings
Reports of three add drownings and a second deat heat exhaustion raised the the state's five-day heat w

RICHARD H. M'CLURE DIES AT CANTON

Richard Harris McClure, former resident of Short Cre Va., where he was born, die Wednesday morning at his h Canton, Ohio, following an e ed illness.

Mr. McClure had been a r of Short Creek the great of his life. He was a mem the Calvary Presbyterian chu Canton, and also belonged to Prince lodge, Knights of F and the Junior O.U.A.W. c city.

Surviving are his wife, M McClure; one daughter, Mrs Taylor of Canton, O.; an sisters, Mrs. Henry Zeid Short Creek, and Mrs. V Downing of Sioux Rapids, I

Funeral services were con Tuesday evening at Canton. the body is to be brought Bertschy Memorial mort where additional services v held at a time to be anno Interment will be made in ing.

DOYLE MASS TODAY

In the Immaculate Conc church at 9 o'clock this mo a mass of requiem will be for Mrs. Effie Rold Doyl former Wheeling resident, succumbed Monday at her in McKees Rocks, Pa.

Prior to the mass brief ices are to be conducted at o'clock in the South Side K funeral home. Interment w in Greenwood cemetery.

JAMES KEYS RITES

In the Brown funeral hor 10 o'clock this morning se will take place for James H.
46, Va., Wes died pita
Re
land, Ha pastor of the Simpson Meth church, will officiate Inter

